Empower Any Struggling Reader

Secondary students with weak reading skills find learning stressful and difficult. For adolescents, repeated failure results in struggle and lack of confidence.

Fast ForWord Literacy enables at-risk students to enjoy reading and unlock their true learning capacities. Turning school stress to academic success improves confidence, self-concept, and behavior.

Struggling Readers

- Dyslexia
- English Language Learners
- Special Education
- Title I

Exercises Adapt to Individual Needs

Individualized learning pathways offer personalized practice and adaptive instruction. Students progress based on mastery, not seat time. With optimized success, students gain confidence in their abilities and stay motivated.

Progress Monitoring Maximizes Growth

Teachers and administrators see real-time progress with a complete suite of reports on four levels:

Student Class School District

Teachers save valuable time and maximize student growth by using actionable data to offer targeted support.

Teacher Resources Build Teacher Capacity

Instructional planning is easy with ready-made resources, including teacher manuals and worksheets. Teachers are also supported with on-site consultation and instruction.

1-2 years
reading gains in just 40-60 hours

“We’ve implemented a number of online programs over the last 20 years, and we have found the Fast ForWord program to be the most successful program for our [6th-10th grade] students.”

-Ken Haggart, Superintendent of Schools

“All those years, I took all those tests and all of those reading programs, and they never worked for me. But this time, it was almost like magic.”

-Willie Brown, High School Student
